COLORADO SPRINGS EXECUTIVES ASSOCIATION

Active Member Application

(To be completed by Applicant Prior to Consideration by the Board)

Active Members shall be persons who are owners, managers, officers, or principal executives of the stated business. As membership is nontransferable, change of ownership or top management of the business, or termination of the Active member in that business, shall terminate the membership. The business may then designate another qualified person to apply for Active Membership and that person shall be given first and preferential treatment by the Board of Directors for that Active Membership. Alternatively, the Active Member, if continuing in the same business classification, may be considered for that Active Membership.
